It is not known whether the brothers who manage St. Michael's college propose to tear it down or to add it to the already splendid collection of antiquities and curricusties which they control. It is understood that St. Michael's college has sought to buy it at various times, since they centred all other property around the hill which is crowned by the Church of San Miguel.

Pittsburg's New Cathedral.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 3.—The correr-stone of the new Cathedral of St. Paul, which is to be one of the grandest church edifices in America, will be laid on Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock.
The preparations have been on a large scale, and with favorable weather a concourse in the thousands will assemble to witness the event. The estimated cost of the edifice is $300,000, exclusive of the interior, upon which at least $200,000 will be expended.

Father Elliott's

Life of Christ

(Profusely Illustrated.)

Various books dealing with the life of our Saviour have been published at various times, but unique among them all is this work, which embraces the entire gospel narrative embodying the teachings and the miracles of Jesus, together with the history of his foundation of the Christian church. The author, Rev. Walter Elliot, C. S. P., is well known as an eminent Paulist missionary. He is also an author of high repute, and this book is his latest and most important work. It is a volume of 800 pages, with more than 1,000 illustrations, many of which are half-tones showing modern scenes in the country made sucred by the life, passion and death of our Lord. To the clergyman this work will be eminently useful in preparing sermons; to the layman it will offer an attractive and entertaining picture of the Saviour's life and labors. The publication of this book is most timely now, being in accord with the publication of this book is most timely now, being in accord with the recent Encyclical of the Holy Father at the opening of the twentieth century, calling the nations back to Christ and urging a more intimate study of his life.
